Do I need to File a Statement of Information for Electioneering Communication ("EC")?

Are you purchasing an advertisement ("ad") that refers to a clearly identifiable candidate in the 2021 Special Election for Kauai Prosecutor?*

Does your ad support or oppose a candidate in the upcoming election?

YES

(1) Will your ad be broadcast from a cable, satellite, television, or radio broadcast station...

Have you spent more than $2,000 in the aggregate for ECs during the calendar year?

(3)

OR

Published by electronic means (i.e., Facebook boosts, Instagram, Google ads, other social media, or email)?

If you answered 'yes' to 1, 2, 3, or 4, you must file a Statement of Information for Electioneering Communication ("Statement")

The Statement must be filed within 24 hours of executing the contract . . .

Once you file the Statement, you must continue to file additional Statements for all subsequent expenditures regardless of the amount or within 60 days prior to a general or special election (i.e., Dec 28, 2021 to Feb 26, 2022)

. . . If the ad is made or scheduled to be made within 30 days prior to a primary or initial special election (i.e., Nov 18, 2021 to Dec 18, 2021)
